

Jack H. Grantski, 73, formerly of Lincoln, passed away Dec. 26, 2013 in South Carolina. He was born Feb. 15, 1940 in Lincoln to Howard and Dorothy (Wright) Grantski. He graduated from Lincoln High and served in the U.S. Navy from 1962 to 1965. He worked as a paint and body man for 40 years. He loved living in the country. He moved to Sterling after retiring but kept up his ability to work on cars. He also painted tractors for farmers on a barter system.

Jack was very talented, his love for music, art, and woodworking was outstanding. In his earlier years, he played bass guitar in his band Brandy. He could paint pictures that were unbelievable. He was married to Shirley Ahrens from 1960 to 1970, and from this union two sons were born. In 1980 Jack met Nancy Hanks and shared his life with her for 33 years.

Jack is survived by his sons, Scott Grantski of Lincoln, Jon Jay (Shelley) Grantski of Augusta, Ga.; nine grandchildren; sisters, Judy Grantski of Greenwood, Linda (Pete) Loofe of Pleasant Dale; nieces, nephews, and many cousins. He is preceded in death by his parents; sister, Cynthia Kay Grantski; brother, Ronald Grantski; grandson, Fletcher.

Funeral services: 2 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 29, at First Plymouth church, 20th & D Street, Lincoln.
Memorials in care of the family.